

Party for the Planet®

SPRING INTO ACTION Party for Planet at the Zoo!

What better way to celebrate Earth Day than with the planet's amazing and diverse wildlife at Mesker Park Zoo & Botanic Garden?! Party for the Planet is the largest combined Earth Day celebration in North America. Stations will be set up throughout the Zoo with information on different environmental issues, activities, and animal encounters as we focus on conservation and sustainability.

Recycled Art Contest 2019

Green Team Tip of the Month

Did you know that there is a Green Team at Mesker Park Zoo? This committee of staff members is constantly looking into ways we can decrease our environmental impact as a zoo and a community.

Here are a few tips on how you can conserve electricity at home to reduce your carbon footprint and help you save on your electric bill.

- Change light bulbs to CFL's or LED's. This can "reduce your carbon footprint by 450 pounds per year." - earthday.org
- Turn off and unplug electronics when not in use.
- Turn off lights when you leave a room.
- Look for the Energy Star logo when you purchase new electronics and appliances.

Tune in next month to get a new tip about ideas you can use to make a difference in our community and our natural world.

*The Photo Ark!

Henderson Community College
Preston Arts Center is bringing the works of National Geographic award winning photographer, Joel Sartore, to the tri-state!

Sartore documents every species living in the world's zoos and wildlife sanctuaries, to inspire action through education, and help save wildlife by supporting on-the-ground conservation efforts.

This exhibit is free and open to the public. Event details on Facebook.
